Thanks as always to the Top Dogs of TSI! This is your final end of year bookings for 2006.

Your budget of 2006 was $1.8MM.

With the performance of this year, the expectations we have talked about next year, and the V-cube business we have discussed added in, I believe that 2007 warrants a fair budget of $1.5MM for DNT.

Thanks again, and we will see you in Dallas.

Refrigerating high value floral stock is no problem for Century Refrigeration

By Ted Kohlenberger, RESCO

Floral stock providers and wholesalers demand effective and efficient refrigerated storage for their products. Customers demand quality, shelf life and aesthetic cues when buying and arranging floral products. With this criterion mind, The CARLTAS Corp. (manager of the San Diego International Floral Trade Center) contacted San Diego Gas and Electric (SDG&E) in the fall of 2002 for assistance. SDG&E, together with Fullerton, Calif. based mechanical engineering firm Kohlenberger Associates Consulting Engineers, Inc. (KACE), initiated a feasibility study in an effort to identify opportunities for major system upgrades.

Ms. Glee Schmidt, general manager of the floral trade center facility, managed the overall study effort and recognized the need for prompt action in order to modernize their aging central refrigeration systems. "We had been utilizing a 1970s era central glycol distribution system originally installed for computer chip manufacturing, said Ms. Schmidt. Major equipment was failing and modernization was long overdue..."

Several important factors were considered in the feasibility review process. These included the concerns over changing out a centralized, glycol distribution system while preventing loss of product and business interruption, reducing system complexity, increasing overall reliability and energy efficiency while providing for future growth. All the while, budget constraints were ever-present.

KACE's team (including brothers Karl and Ted Kohlenberger, Matthew Waller, PE and James Kuhn, PE) prepared a comprehensive trade-off analysis detailing the various system improvement options. Existing energy usage was documented through extensive use of real-time monitoring hardware while projected energy usage and savings figures were modeled using sophisticated, customized spreadsheet software. The complete replacement of the aging systems with new, high efficiency air-cooled equipment appeared to be a viable option.

Next, KACE turned to Refrigeration Equipment Specialist Company, Tustin Calif., (RESCO) representatives for Century Refrigeration, Pryor Okla., for highly efficient air-cooled refrigeration equipment. RESCO's Mike and Tom Nau assisted KACE with the selection of high efficiency, air-cooled, R-22 packages totaling forty horsepower (40 HP). After an aggressive project bid process,

We will continue to rely on Chuck Russell and Wes Morgan with their sagacious experience of our equipment and industry as well. I will also be devoting more of my time to the Customer Assurance programs, policies and issues with Phil Combs assuming the responsibilities of the Quality Assurance sector of our organization.

Commonly asked questions when selecting a Steam Coil

By Mitch Replogle

When dealing with an above freezing entering air application, a Standard Steam would be the coil of choice. But when entering air temperatures are below freezing, a steam distributing coil is required. When selecting a steam coil, the first consideration should be tube thickness, depending on your steam pressure a heavier thickness may be required. We recommend .020" for steam pressures of 1 to 15lbs., and for applications from 16 to 30 lbs., use .025". If the steam pressure is above 30 lbs. and under 100 lbs., the recommended tube thickness would be .035". For steam pressures between 101 and 150 lbs., we recommend .049" tube. If the steam pressures are greater than 150 lbs., a steel tubed King coil would be recommended.

The next consideration should be length. For 5/8" tube, we have a maximum fin length of 72". For a two row application, that would be 60". When using the one inch tube, the maximum length extends to 136". The lengths can be extended when supplying from both ends. The maximum height with one supply is 48", this is to insure that the coil has proper steam distribution. The maximum heights and lengths would also apply with your steel tube King Coil applications.

Gentlemen,

The PGA championship is at Southern Hills, Okla. in Tulsa this year, and we have tickets for all 7 days. If you have a customer you want to bring to this, I am giving you first shot at getting on the list. The dates are August 6th through August 12th.

If you can come, let me know if you want to see the Pro Am and practice rounds at the beginning of the week or if you want to see the competition rounds at the middle and end of the week.

Let me know soon because it is already tough to get a hotel room for that week in Tulsa, and our slots will be full quickly. We would like to see you there. :)

We have the confirmed list of people who will be there on day 1 of the tournament. I will be at the event as well as you if you want. When you get into town let me know what time you will be there.

Dave was discussing bringing one of his customers, but I never heard a solid confirmation so he is not confirmed on the list. Let me know soon so I can reserve a slot. I also spoke with him about taking his guy golfing one day. Let me know if you want to go as well.

To all Representatives and Customers,

It is with mixed emotions that I announce the retirement of Sam Jones, Executive Vice President responsible for Sales and Marketing. Sam is retiring to pursue his personal dream of developing the 'Spring Valley Ranch' into a ministry retreat and conference center. Spring Valley Ranch will focus on Youth Leadership Development, Ministerial Retreats, Adventure Recreation and Corporate Retreats. Sam and I have frequently discussed our passions in life, and lately he feels led that it is the time to follow God's will in his and Stacy's life. On behalf of RAE Corporation, I would like to wish Sam and Stacy all of God's blessings in their life plans. I would like to thank Sam for the past 25 years of blood, sweat and tears he has given to make RAE Corporation a success. He will be missed!

I would like to announce the appointment of Kevin Trowhill as Vice President of Sales for RAE Corporation. Kevin joins RAE Corporation from Webco Inc. (CES Company) in Springfield, Missouri. While at Webco, Kevin was the National Sales Manager. Kevin is not completely new to RAE Corporation having spent 5 years with the company between 1986 and 1990. Kevin will be joining RAE Corporation on September 4th.

Sam will continue his association with RAE Corporation to assist in the transition. Additionally, Jim Chandler, Marketing Manager, will now be reporting directly to me.

Subject: Cancellation of Representative Agreement

Dear Mr. Thakker:

Per the terms of our contract agreement, effective today, I am canceling DNT Enterprises, Inc. representation contract for Technical Systems' products.

Technical Systems will protect your outstanding quotations for a period of 30 days from 9/21/07. If there are projects that you would like protection beyond 30 days please identify those projects on your list and we will determine on a project by project basis the extent, if any, of extended protection. This list must be submitted no later than 9/27/07. After that time Technical Systems will have no obligation to protect your outstanding quotations. If you have a project that is closing within those 30 days that is not on the protected list, we will deal with it on a job to job basis.

I appreciate all of your efforts in representing Technical Systems equipment, but I feel it is in our best interest to pursue a different direction for representation. I wish you the best of luck. If we can be of any service on an individual basis, don't hesitate to call.
